

SUPPORT BRUSSELS ACADEMY!

What is Brussels Academy?

Brussels Academy is urban and citizen university that wants to make city together. It's a space for exchange and co-production of knowledge on Brussels among universities, civil society and engaged inhabitants of Brussels. Since the beginning, in 2013, we counted more than 20.000 participations and 420 activities.

Brussels Academy, for who?

Brussels Academy sees knowledge as a common. Knowledge cannot be commodified. It is a place for free exchange in which all Brussels inhabitants can participate. A place that is open to everyone.

Brussels Academy is made possible thanks to a large network of volunteers: about ten professors emeriti, hundreds of specialists from civil society and the cultural sector, hundred active and engaged academics, hundred partner associations and institutions, about 15 cultural centres in Brussels opening their doors for our activities...

Why support Brussels Academy?

Free entrance has a cost. Indeed, we do have costs for preparation, communication and organisation. Therefore, the contributions of subsidizing authorities but also participants and supporters help us maintain our activities free and open to everyone. Our project wouldn't be able to survive without a participative support.

How to contribute to this collective project?

If you think Brussels Academy plays an important role in constructing and maintaining a strong civil society that is engaged and well informed, you can also contribute to the project.

Regardless of the amount, your donation will allow Brussels Academy to maintain its autonomy and help it to continue offering and developing activities for all Brussels inhabitants.
